By making this booking, you'll enter into agreements with: (i) Gotogate, Inc. for the flight reservation service, and (ii) and Turkish Airlines for the flight tickets and your travel on the aircrafts. Booking.com is not a party to either of these two agreements. Booking.com provides the platform on which travel companies make flight tickets for travel available with named airlines. Booking.com's role as a platform is more fully set out in its terms and conditions (link above).
